Major differences between BSd 5/BM 5 and BSd 5 Encore

BeoSound 5 & BeoMaster 5	BeoSound 5 Encore
Features
Master Link enabled and able to participate in full integrated setup	Stand-alone solution
Home Automation with Master Link Gateway	NO
1 TB Integrated storage	Depends on external storage or attached USB storage units
Synchronisation of music with BeoConnect	Music is to be placed on external storage by means of generic Windows tools or by applications supplied by the NAS producer
NO	Connection of USB storage devices
Web and Photo browsing on TV	NO
Two-way browsing of content with Beo 6	NO
Control of play with smartphone apps	NO
Unicode support	NO
Use wireless dongle and set it up in Service Menu	Easy connection to wireless (auto or WPS) via built-in wireless module
NO	PIN code protection
NO	Headphone connection
Line-in through external USB-to-Phono audio adapter	Line-in directly
Fixation on stands is done by tilting the product and turning it anti-clockwise until fixed	Fixation on stands is done by attaching product to stand and turning the collar
Using the product
Wake up by turning the wheel or pressing GO	Wake up by pressing GO
The LED on BeoSound 5 is	The LED on BeoSound 5 Encore is
• red when in standby	• off when in standby
• blinking red when starting up	• red when starting up
	• red in standby when a task, such as MOTS calculations, is performed
• off when operated	• off when operated
Index wheel is not part of present software	Has index wheel when handling larger amounts of data in views such as many tracks or stations
Long press on GO reveals actions to select when releasing GO again	Long press on GO makes the choices stay in the window until chosen and selected by pressing GO
Muting the sound is done by using a remote control and not on the product	To mute the sound you turn the volume wheel fast. The solid line around the wheel will be a dotted line when muted
MOTS progress is displayed in the QUEUE view with a percentage of completion and removed when done	MOTS progress is displayed as an orange line around the wheel and text stating that MOTS is working in all views in left corner
Exclude Tracks, Albums or Artists from the MOTS play queue MOTS generated	NO